

Independent
Association of Prep Schools

Q25: Digital innovation and development: plug and play – getting hands on with technology

Date Wednesday 24 May 2023
Venue York House School, WD3 4LW
Cost £229 (non IAPS members - £329)

At York House School we are excited to host our next IAPS Digital Innovation Team event. Following on from our Autumn Term gathering, we aim to bring together a range of specialists from around Education Technology. This is a great opportunity to listen to experts, gain hands on experience with resources and network with likeminded colleagues. The IAPS Digital Innovation will be joining forces with the TTS Digital Innovation Team to share our latest developments, practice and pedagogy. We are delighted to welcome in person visits from leading specialist for Assistive Technology, Myles Pilling. Throughout the event there shall be hands on opportunity to interact with a range of cross curriculum resources and projects alongside our students.

Audience	Computing teachers KS1/2/3, STEM teachers, Digital Strategists, deputy heads, SENCOs
Objectives	After so much time away from physical events, this event, will be full of opportunities to get hands on with as much technology as possible. This will include a range of exciting new technologies with discussion around possible applications across the curriculum.
Course Director Presenters	Dave Presky, IAPS digital innovation, research and development Myles Pilling TTS Digital Innovation Team Lex Lang

Programme: Wednesday 24 May 2023

1000 Registration and coffee

1030 Welcome and introduction

1100 Myles Pilling: The Power of Assistive Technology – enabling all.

In this keynote Myles will show the importance of AT in education through the British Assistive Technology's project The Power of AT project - a short film series that shows the transformative power of AT.

1145 TTS Digital Innovation Team: Progression in robotics
A showcase of new innovation including progression in robotics.

1230 lunch, networking and play

1315 Dave Presky: Working in alternate formats-Gamification of education and E-sport, exploring the positive and negative implications of using games in the classroom.

1400 Refreshments, networking and play

1415 Lex Lang: Working in alternate formats-multi-media and green screen.

1500 Course ends

...

(2)

Terms and conditions of cancellation: If a delegate cancels his or her application up to and including 4 weeks prior to the date a refund of 75% of the fee will be given; 50% of the fee will be refunded up to and including 2 weeks prior to the date; thereafter, IAPS regrets that no refund can be made.

We will do all we can to ensure our courses go ahead as planned. Occasionally, for reasons outside our control and particularly in the uncertain times we find ourselves in, courses may be cancelled, or courses that were due to take place in person may have to take place online. While a refund of the course fee will be given where courses are cancelled by us, we will not be able to take responsibility for any expenses incurred by you in advance, such as travel or accommodation costs which are no longer required due to the cancellation of a course or it being changed to a remote format. We do hope you will understand.

Data protection: At IAPS we are committed to protecting your personal data and we want to make sure we meet GDPR standards. We hold your data so that we can send you details on future events. For information on how we retain this data and how we access it, view our data protection documents on www.iaps.uk/iaps-data-protection-documents.html. We will continue to be in touch with you in line with our updated data policies. If you have a question about your data, want to update your details or have your data removed, contact us at data@iaps.uk

Insurance: IAPS regrets that it cannot accept liability for loss or damage however caused to the personal property of any person attending this or any other event organised under the auspices of the Association.