P21 History: how diverse is your history curriculum? Promoting diversity in the history curriculum

Date Wednesday 25 May 2022, 0900 – 1200
Venue Online via Zoom
Cost £125 (non IAPS members – additional £50)

Now more than ever before has seen renewed impetus for teachers to review what they teach and to reflect on how diverse their history curricula are and how they can work towards greater diversity. However, it's not always clear where to go to find the stories and resources that will bring this to fruition and a more diverse curriculum to life. Working with educators from The Black Curriculum, the course will provide accounts of excellent practice and offer teachers inspiration and guidance in presenting a broader view of history.

Audience Teachers of history KS2 and KS3, including subject leaders

Objectives To better understand key concepts surrounding diversity in the curriculum, providing ideas about how the curriculum can be built to provide greater diversity and how teachers can embed Black British History into classroom practice.

Course director Vincenzo Capozzoli, IAPS history subject adviser

Course presenter TBC – The Black Curriculum

Terms and conditions of cancellation: If a delegate cancels his or her application up to and including 4 weeks prior to the date a refund of 75% of the fee will be given; 50% of the fee will be refunded up to and including 2 weeks prior to the date; thereafter, IAPS regrets that no refund can be made.

Data protection: At IAPS we are committed to protecting your personal data and we want to make sure we meet GDPR standards. We hold your data so that we can send you details on future events. For information on how we retain this data and how we access it, view our data protection documents on www.iaps.uk/iaps-data-protection-documents.html. We will do all we can to ensure our courses go ahead as planned. Occasionally, for reasons outside our control and particularly in the uncertain times we find ourselves in, courses may be cancelled, or courses that were due to take place in person may have to take place online. While a refund of the course fee will be given where courses are cancelled by us, we will not be able to take responsibility for any expenses incurred by you in advance, such as travel or accommodation costs which are no longer required due to the cancellation of a course or it being changed to a remote format. We do hope you will understand.
