WELCOME TO KING EDWARD'S SCHOOL, BATH

It is a privilege to be welcoming an array of schools to today's IAPS Rugby festival here at King Edward's School. It promises to be an exciting morning of sporting skill and endeavour, and I am sure that it will inspire many positive experiences and memories for all of those involved.

Having been involved with IAPS sport for a number of years in different roles, I have been lucky to be able to witness first-hand the power of such events to celebrate and to share all that is good about sport in general and specifically rugby. We know that players arriving today will be competitive, motivated and will give their all for their teams, for their friends and for themselves. However, we also know that this is a sport coached and played across IAPS schools in the right spirit with player development and enjoyment at the heart of everything and that is why it is such a pleasure to be able to host all of our visitors today. Please join me in supporting passionately and enthusiastically but also with the spirit of rugby and the event in mind.

Obviously, none of this is possible without a lot of hard work in the background. I would like to thank the IAPS Sport team and my KES colleagues across all departments for organising and delivering today. I am also very grateful for the visiting staff, coaches, referees and parents, without whom, these children would not have this opportunity. Finally, the biggest thank you goes to all of the players themselves who will be representing their schools today and making us all very proud. I wish you the very best experience, on and off the field.

WELCOME FROM IAPS

First and foremost, sport is about participation and enjoyment. Sport is an incredibly important part of the personal development of children. Thanks to our eager and enthusiastic membership, over 22,000 children take part in the IAPS Sport programme every year. With 22 sports to choose from and over 170 events organised annually, there are plenty of opportunities for our member schools to get involved in.

Whether this is your first time at an IAPS event, or you have been entering them for many years, we hope you enjoy the competition and good luck!

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR SPECTATORS

Where permitted, we are delighted to welcome spectators to attend IAPS events.

As a spectator/parent you have a responsibility to:

1. Be a positive role model and lead by example. Children are involved in sport for their enjoyment and without undue spectator pressure.
2. Encourage children to play by the rules and respect the officials.
3. Always respect the officials and their decisions. Video evidence will not be accepted in any cases to dispute decisions.
4. Always respect the coaches and their decisions. They give their time, energy and experience to coach the children.
5. Refrain from any form of bad language or poor behaviour towards players, officials and fellow spectators.
6. Be friendly and respectful to the opposition.
7. Teach children that effort and teamwork are as important as victory so that the result of each game is accepted without undue disappointment.
8. Turn defeat into victory by helping children work towards skill improvement and a positive sporting attitude.
9. Be aware that IAPS events have comprehensive safeguarding policies and procedures, available on our website: <https://iaps.uk/sport/safeguarding.html>
10. Try to relax and enjoy the event!

IAPS wants all competitions to run without any negative incidents. Excitement and emotions can run high at events, not least amongst the supporters. Unpleasant and inappropriate behaviour is very rarely seen but you should be aware that IAPS retains the right to ask you to leave the event if you fail to comply with the code of conduct.

SAFEGUARDING

IAPS believes that the welfare and wellbeing of all children (young people under the age of 18) and adults at risk attending an IAPS event is of the highest concern. All such persons have the right to safety and protection and any suspicions, concerns or allegations of harm will be taken seriously and will be dealt with swiftly and appropriately.

IAPS expects all adults who are engaged with the delivery of sports events to fully comply with safeguarding procedures as laid out in the IAPS Safeguarding Policy and Procedures, and the KCSiE document (these are available on our website: sport.iaps.uk/safeguarding).

IAPS expects all coaches present to be DBS checked and have received relevant safeguarding training at their school/club.

IAPS expects that all adults attending events have read the IAPS code of conduct, photo policy and anti bullying policy. These are available to read and download from our website here: sport.iaps.uk/safeguarding.

If you have any safeguarding concerns today, please don't hesitate to speak to Emily Nunan, Mike Kershaw or a member of the organising team.
