P08: Getting the best out of inspection

Date Tuesday 25 January 2022
Venue Online – via Zoom
Cost £125 (non IAPS members – additional £50)

A highly experienced retired ISI reporting inspector will guide delegates through what they need to know to prepare their staff and their schools for inspection. The course will explain the various formats of inspection and associated school documentation. Delegates will improve their understanding of how best to show their school to inspectors, demonstrating the pupils' learning, achievement and personal development and the school's regulatory compliance.

Audience School leaders, leaders in EYFS and staff delegated to oversee inspection preparation

Objectives The course will enable delegates to gain a greater understanding of the various types of ISI inspection, how they can best prepare their schools and present their evidence to the inspection team.

We will do all we can to ensure our courses go ahead as planned. Occasionally, for reasons outside our control and particularly in the uncertain times we find ourselves in, courses may be cancelled, or courses that were due to take place in person may have to take place online. While a refund of the course fee will be given where courses are cancelled by us, we will not be able to take responsibility for any expenses incurred by you in advance, such as travel or accommodation costs which are no longer required due to the cancellation of a course or it being changed to a remote format. We do hope you will understand.
