IAPS Squash Championships

Event information

Age groups

- U11 singles (mixed)
- U13 singles (mixed)
- Girls' singles

Championship format

- The competition starts with pool matches followed by further matches played in a Monrad format to decide overall placings, Cup, Plate and Bowl winners.
- All competitors are required for both days

Girls' competition

- Subject to how many competitors take part, girls can either take part in one or both the U11/U13 and girls' competition.
- If we receive a good number of entries into the girls' competition, we might have to ask competitors to take part in either the girls or the U11/U13 competition.

Event programme

- The programme and event day information will be sent to schools approximately two weeks before the event.
- Schools will be asked to provide competitor details before attending the qualifier. In line with GDPR, only essential information is collected in order to be able to organise the sports event.
- Schools should provide full competitor details by the closing date for entries.

Draw/schedule

- The draws are created by IAPS after the closing date and will be shared with the organisers as soon as possible.

Marking matches

- Competitors are required to mark the matches
- The winner of each match is responsible for returning the match score sheet to the competition control desk so that the result can be recorded.

IAPS Squash Championships

- The winner should then collect the score sheet for the following match and return to the relevant court to 'mark' the next match.
- Competitors should be 'coached' on how to mark matches prior to attending the event.

Equipment

- Competitors should wear non-marking shoes.
- British Standard eye protection is required for all matches
- The double yellow dot ball will be used.

Rules and regulations

- The national governing body for squash in England is England Squash.
- All IAPS tournaments are conducted under the England Squash rules.
- Please read the rules and regulations in full before entering the event.

Risk assessment

A full risk assessment is carried out by the host. If you would like a copy of the risk assessment, please contact IAPS Sport.
