Q10: Getting the best out of inspection

Date Wednesday 08 February 2023
Venue Online – via Zoom
Cost £125 (non IAPS members – additional £50)

A highly experienced retired ISI reporting inspector will guide delegates through what they need to know to prepare their staff and their schools for inspection. The course will explain the various formats of inspection and associated school documentation. Delegates will improve their understanding of how best to show their school to inspectors, demonstrating the pupils' learning, achievement and personal development and the school's regulatory compliance.

Audience School leaders, leaders in EYFS and staff delegated to oversee inspection preparation

Objectives The course will enable delegates to gain a greater understanding of the various types of ISI inspection, how they can best prepare their schools and present their evidence to the inspection team.

Course Director Christopher Sanderson, Amadeus Consulting and Training
