Terms and conditions of cancellation: If a delegate cancels his or her application up to and including 4 weeks prior to the date a refund of 75% of the fee will be given; 50% of the fee will be refunded up to and including 2 weeks prior to the date; thereafter, IAPS regrets that no refund can be made.

We will do all we can to ensure our courses go ahead as planned. Occasionally, for reasons outside our control and particularly in the uncertain times we find ourselves in, courses may be cancelled, or courses that were due to take place in person may have to take place online. While a refund of the course fee will be given where courses are cancelled by us, we will not be able to take responsibility for any expenses incurred by you in advance, such as travel or accommodation costs which are no longer required due to the cancellation of a course or it being changed to a remote format. We do hope you will understand.

Data protection: At IAPS we are committed to protecting your personal data and we want to make sure we meet GDPR standards. We hold your data so that we can send you details on future events. For information on how we retain this data and how we access it, view our data protection documents on www.iaps.uk/iaps-data-protection-documents.html. We will continue to be in touch with you in line with our updated data policies. If you have a question about your data, want to update your details or have your data removed, contact us at data@iaps.uk

Insurance: IAPS regrets that it cannot accept liability for loss or damage however caused to the personal property of any person attending this or any other event organised under the auspices of the Association.
