

903: Spoon Feed No More! A cutting-edge synthesis of what works, and what does not, in real classrooms

Date: Monday 21 January 2019

Venue: Maple House, 150 Corporation Street, Birmingham B4 6TB

Cost: Online £229

Do you feel that your classroom is often a place where pupils come to watch you work? Do you feel that too many of your pupils take the easy way out and always demand your help? Do you want a return to “good old-fashioned teaching” instead of tick-lists and buzzwords? If you are looking for a truly inspirational course that's been proven to deliver, look no further. This course represents the philosophy and practice of Dragonfly Training which is ‘hands on’ learning where the pupils work harder than the teacher.

Audience: SMT, Subject Leaders, Teachers KS1-3

Objectives: Delegates will receive a cutting-edge synthesis of what works and what doesn't in real classrooms; take away dozens of teaching strategies that really work; understand how to plan effectively; build in academic rigour and create language rich classrooms, and be clear about what ‘adaptive teaching’ really looks like and how to implement it.
