

907: ESR: Essential Education for the 21st Century

Date: Thursday 31 January 2019

Venue: Maple House, 150 Corporation Street, Birmingham, B4 6TB

Cost: Online £229 (non IAPS members – additional £100)

In 2014 the IAPS Council agreed that at the heart of every IAPS school there should be a focus upon Education for Social Responsibility (ESR); the promotion of well-being, rights, responsibilities, knowledge, skills and the opportunity for young people to be valuable and constructive members of society. This area of education is frequently referred to as “Essential Education” as it represents the areas that are at the heart of fulfilled lives, strong communities and global sustainability. This course is designed to enable delegates to gain a deeper understanding of why ESR is such an important area, and how to deliver it without over-burdening already pressured staff.

Audience: Senior Managers and Middle Managers, PSHE Co-Ordinator's

Objectives: This course is designed to enable delegates to gain a deeper understanding of why ESR is such an important area, and how to deliver it without over-burdening already pressured staff.
