N19 Obligations towards pupils under the Equality Act including reasonable adjustments, admissions and exclusions

Date: Tuesday 23 March 2021

Venue: Online – delivered via Zoom

Cost: Online £99 (non IAPS members – £149)

Increase your knowledge in the area of discrimination law and the obligations a school has for disabled pupils. This course will consider the legal issues and specifically adjusting for disabled pupils. We will look at admissions and exclusions; the steps to take in considering whether to admit (including the scenario where there is an EHC Plan in place) and risk areas. Also, the steps a school might consider if they believe they can no longer cater for a child's educational needs. Delegates will participate in interactive case studies, including what steps a parent can take if they allege discrimination.

Audience: Bursars, those involved in SEND

Objectives: Increase your knowledge in the area of discrimination law and the obligations a school has for disabled pupils.
