P04: Early careers teachers introduction: developing an understanding of how to identify and meet the needs of more able learners

Date Monday 17 January 2022
Venue Online
Cost £125 (non IAPS members – additional £50)

The session will establish why it is important to meet the needs of more able learners and how teachers can get started with identification and planning. Task design that provides challenge will be explored with practical examples shared. Consideration will also be given to current research and how it can inform teaching of more able learners.

We will do all we can to ensure our courses go ahead as planned. Occasionally, for reasons outside our control and particularly in the uncertain times we find ourselves in, courses may be cancelled, or courses that were due to take place in person may have to take place online. While a refund of the course fee will be given where courses are cancelled by us, we will not be able to take responsibility for any expenses incurred by you in advance, such as travel or accommodation costs which are no longer required due to the cancellation of a course or it being changed to a remote format. We do hope you will understand.
