

The Edinburgh Open Education Conference Programme

Friday 7 October 2022
EICC, Edinburgh EH3 8EE

Supported by

Friday 7 October 2022:

The Edinburgh Open Education Conference

We are delighted to welcome colleagues from state sector schools and other education leaders to The Edinburgh Open Education Conference

0830	Refreshments, exhibition, networking and Fringe Events
0900	Registration for those attending The Edinburgh Open Education Conference only
0945	Welcome to the Edinburgh Open Education Conference Charlotte Johnston (IAPS), Melvyn Roffe (HMC) and Amanda Hatton, Executive Director of Education and Children's Services, City of Edinburgh Council.
1000	Professor Sir Geoff Palmer OBE, Chancellor of Heriot-Watt University, Edinburgh Chair: David Dempster, Headteacher of Boroughmuir High School, Edinburgh
1045	Refreshments, networking, exhibition and Fringe Events
1145	Dharshini David, the BBC's Global Trade Correspondent
1230	Lunch, networking, exhibition and Lunchtime concert by the pupils of St Mary's Music School, Edinburgh.
1330	Sarah Brown, Founder and Chair of Theirworld and Executive Chair of the Global Business Coalition for Education Chair, Norma Prentice, Headteacher of Castlebrae High School, Edinburgh
1415	Panel Session: Learning Across the Nations <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Harold Hislop, Chief Inspector at the Department of Education of the Irish Government;

- Professor Ken Muir CBE, independent advisor to the Scottish Government on education reform;
- Kirsty Williams CBE, formerly Cabinet Secretary for Education in the Welsh Government;
- Sammy Wright, Assistant Principal at Southmoor Academy, Sunderland, author, and former Commissioner for Schools and Higher Education on the UK Government's Social Mobility Commission.

Chair:
Henry Hepburn, Editor, Tes Scotland

Leading figures from education in England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales will explore what we have to learn from approaches and experiences around the British Isles.

1500	Enlightened Education: The Time is Now Dr Avis Glaze, Member of the First Minister's International Council of Education Advisers and former Education Commissioner for Ontario Chair: Amanda Hatton, Executive Director of Education and Children's services, City of Edinburgh Council
1545	Concluding remarks
1600	Conference closes

We look forward to welcoming you to the Edinburgh International Conference Centre in October

Supported by

