R19: Inspection: getting the best out of inspection (Course updated for Framework 23)

Date Friday 19 April 2024
Venue Online via zoom
Cost IAPS members - £135 (non-IAPS members - £185)

A highly experienced retired ISI reporting inspector will guide delegates through what they need to know to prepare their staff and their schools for inspection. The course will explain the formats and processes of inspection and associated school documentation. Delegates will improve their understanding of how best to show their school to inspectors, demonstrating the pupils' well-being, development, learning and achievement and the school's regulatory compliance.

Audience Heads, members of SLT, Governors, Heads of EYFS, Office managers, and members of staff with designated responsibility for inspection co-ordination
Course Director & Presenter Christopher Sanderson, Amadeus Consulting and Training
